WORKING HISTORY

Set out below is a list of Companies that I have worked for. For most, I have been employed in a contract capacity as part of my own business. I have listed major clients in detail, with a basic list of other clients following. Following this is a complete list of all contract projects I have contributed to.

PENGUIN BOOKS AUSTRALIA

1994–1995

Full time position

Summary

I was employed full-time at Penguin while concurrently studying in my final year at RMIT. Initially I worked on a special offsite project as a researcher and map checker. I also liaised between the in-house Cartographers at Penguin and the Editors I was working with. Later, I worked in-house checking pages for 'Explore Australia' publications.

LONELY PLANET PUBLICATIONS

1996–present

Full time, then Contract

Summary

I have worked for most business units within Lonely Planet. The bulk of my work has been drawing and updating maps for standard guidebooks, but I have also been involved and (in some instances) helped design the mapping element of many of their newer products. I sometimes coordinate the mapping for individual titles. This involves title administration, directing in-house and external staff and liaison with Publishers, Editors and Authors.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

2000–present

Contract

Summary

At Cambridge University Press, I have been involved in many projects in both the Trade and Reference divisions. They range from small projects to detailed series of maps and diagrams for large textbooks. Subject matter varies, but includes geographical and environmental science secondary school texts, biographies, political non-fiction, history and reference books.

WORKING HISTORY (CONTINUED)

ROYAL AUTO CLUB OF VICTORIA LIMITED

1998

Contract

Summary

This was a three month, full time in-house position at RACV headquarters. It involved research and updating of generic RACV town plans specifically for a publication called 'Experience Victoria'. I also redesigned RACV strip maps and modified standard Melbourne transit maps to suit RACV publications.

McGRAW-HILL EDUCATION

2001-present

Contract

Summary

Similar to Cambridge University Press, at McGraw-Hill I have worked on many large and small secondary education textbooks in areas such as History, Geography and Environmental science.

INDRA PUBLISHING

2001-present

Contract

Summary

Indra is a small, Melbourne based publisher specialising in non-fiction titles concerning South-east Asia. I have contributed maps to several history and current affairs titles.

TEXT PUBLISHING

2001-present

Contract

Summary

I have regularly contributed maps to many of this medium sized publishers' non-fiction publications. Generally, the titles concern Australian history, Natural history and current affairs.

NEW SOUTH WALES DEPARTMENT OF PRIMARY INDUSTRIES – MINERALS

2002-present

Contract

Summary

I have worked on two large projects for this State Government department. The work consisted of technical, specialised drawings for Mining industry publications.

TOURISM VICTORIA

2002-present

Contract

Summary

The State body for tourism in Victoria has contracted me on several occasions for large and small web and print mapping projects for both public and internal departmental use.

LONDON ORGANISING COMMITTEE OF THE OLYMPIC GAMES (LOCOG) & OLYMPIC DELIVERY AUTHORITY (ODA) 2012

2008

Contract

Summary

Initially 4 weeks, extended to 6, this position was based in London. It involved supplying a 3rd party contractor with mapping data from onsite resources for incorporation into a upcoming public-use website (LOCOG). Later, I began initial development of mapping identity for future use across all LOCOG and ODA mapping products which involved symbol, colour and style development.
